SRAG Fall Art Show

We would like to thank everyone who participated in the Fall Show. Its smaller size was more than compensated for by the quality and presentation of the art work. It was gratifying to see our newer members taking part.

The organization of the event went relatively smoothly; this was due in no small part to the excellent guidelines passed on to us by Bobbi and Al; we followed them very closely and found them to be invaluable. The set-up and take down was accomplished with its usual clockwork precision in spite of the near blizzard conditions on Sunday evening. So thank you all and we will be hoping for a larger turnout for the spring show.

Our sales total was $696, and Journey Home made $115.

We would like to thank our judge, Jeanne Beck. Please take a look at her website at jeannebeck.com she will be our presenter in January where she will discuss her choices. The results of the judging are shown below.
