Life Drawing with a Model

Terry Brooks and Lisa LaDelfa

Our friend Lisa will be on hand to pose. To those who have not been to one of these sessions before, Lisa is an excellent model, very enthusiastic and enjoys her time with us. Bring whatever dry media you wish; pen, pencil, colored pencil, charcoal, conte-crayon or pastel, and a drawing tablet. These sessions are very loosely organized and artists are encouraged to help set up the poses. We have managed to get through five or six 20 minute poses in the past, but this schedule is flexible. This will be an excellent opportunity to hone your drawing skills and have some fun.

.Spring Show at the Legacy

From Karen Arieno:

The reception at the Legacy was smaller than past years, but it looked great...Theresa came through with food, wine, and even balloons directing guests around the show...I spoke with her after about next year's show and she promised to have 50 rods on location for us. She apologized for the disappointment to everyone who had to hang fewer paintings than expected. This was her (and my) first show, and next year's will be better. We already had one sale before the reception even started.
Elaine Simonetti sold a watercolor and brought another to replace it just minutes before the opening!

Thanks to all who participated and remember take down is Saturday morning
June 1st. 9:00 - 10:30
