Programs

We are looking for volunteers from within SRAG to give presentations at our meetings. We will be bringing in some outside artists as is our usual practice, but we cannot do this for every meeting because of the expense. As a way of easing some of this cost we would like to tap the resources of the membership to volunteer, or suggest a volunteer to conduct a demo or present some special talent or technique that would be of interest to the group.

If you have any thoughts on this subject please share them with Nina or any board member. Any input on this subject will be welcome.

Watercolor Workshop in the spring.

It has been suggested that SRAG schedule a workshop with Kathleen Giles, a nationally known Watercolor artist. See her glowing watercolors at her website: Kathleen Giles, watercolor artist, Lockport, NY. This would probably be on a Saturday in April. We would have to charge $45 to cover her costs. We will need 12 to 15 participants. This will be an interesting but intensive workshop with demos. The class, following Kathy's instruction would all be working on the same painting. This way we can learn the concepts she will be teaching. It would be held at Lakeview Community Church on Long Pond Rd and run from 9:30 to 4:00 with a lunch break. We will need an early commitment to be able to schedule Kathleen so please contact Nina at nmrupp@yahoo.com or call 424-4327 as soon as possible.

SRAG at H & R Block

H&R Block has been remodeled. Placing our paintings there for the tax season is now in question. Sharlene, the office manager, is contacting Block to see if they will give us permission to display our work. I'll let members know what is decided as soon as Sharlene gets back to me. Nina Rupp

Christmas Party:

It was decided at the October meeting that this year's Christmas party would be an afternoon affair so that people can attend and still drive home before dark. The party will take place at the McCune's on Sunday December 6th. At 1:30 PM. A flyer is attached.
