November 2017

Wednesday November 15. 2017

Meet at 6:00 pm. at Greece Town Hall
Business Meeting starts at 6:30
Program starts at 7:00

Program: Andrea Durfee - Watercolor and pen & Ink

Andrea Durfee creates gouache and ink paintings of sleeping giants, meshing figures with landscapes. As an artist with an art therapy background, Durfee focuses on the process of creating, and how that translates to mindful living and mental balance. Durfee's paintings personify personal mythology and the tension between opposing emotions and inclinations that she views as central to our human experience. Figures embody both power and fragility within the paintings, being mountainous and rocky yet exposed and vulnerable. Her Sleeping Giants represent our connection to our environment, our past, and how we interact with them in our present.

Fall Show, The Mall at Greece Ridge

Everyone should have received their sitting schedule at this time. The racks will be set up at 9:30pm. on Thursday and those who helped set up may hang their artwork at this time. The rest can be hung on Friday morning when the mall opens for business. An important change from the last show is that we are now able to accept payment by credit cards. Colette Savage will be giving a quick tutorial on the use of our card reader and tablet at the meeting on Wednesday. Everyone who is on the sitting schedule should become familiar with its use.
