Kristin Malone demonstrates watercolor

A Rochester Art Club member since 1980, Kristin's educational background has provided her opportunities to work in a variety of media. These include batik, watercolor, ink, colored pencil, clay, silk-screen, etching, photography and digital media. While she now works primarily in watercolor, Kristin believes these experiences have broadened her approach and continue to influence her painting methods.

Kristin has exhibited throughout the years in one woman and group shows and her work is included in numerous private and public collections. She exhibits with Rochester Art Club in annual shows, with The Creator's Hands in Rochester, and at the Rochester Museum and Science Center Holiday Show in November.

In 1999 Kristin was invited to illustrate Rochester's Park Avenue Festival poster, and in 2006 her painting was selected for the Corn Hill Festival. Varied views of the neighborhoods done in watercolor were featured in both posters.
