A report on the business meeting of SEPTEMBER 8, 2022

Attendance: 10 members, 1 guest who joined at the meeting

Meeting was called to order at 1:10 pm by Al Bergerson

Al reports that for the foreseeable future member meetings will be held at the church where we currently meet. The Town of Greece is 18 months behind in construction of the community center. If Town of Greece has space for us during the daytime, we may be able to return there in the future. Letter for renewal of dues for 2023 will go out on October 1, with dues requested by October 18. SRAG has not collected dues for 2 years because of interruption in meetings by Covid pandemic. We have been back to regular meetings for 2022 and need to assess what our treasury will be for 2023 to plan for events in that year. For your convenience, you may attend the October meeting in person and bring your check. Betsy Ogles, Member Secretary, will collect your payment there, saving you from having to pay postage. If unable to attend the October meeting, please be sure to mail your check to Betsy promptly. Dues remain $35 for renewing members; $50 for new members; $50 for exhibit only members. Our standard year is now January - December, rather than April - May.

Meeting adjourned 1:15 pm for demonstration of watercolor techniques by Paul Allen Taylor. (see the attachment to this newsletter for a very comprehensive review of Paul's demonstration, by Betsy Ogles)

November meeting:
